

CALL FOR PAPERS

ADVANCES IN GEOARCHEOLOGY AND ARCHAEOMETRY, RECENT RESEARCH IN LATIN AMERICA - 2.

VOLUMEN ESPECIAL/SPECIAL ISSUE

Boletín de la Sociedad Geológica Mexicana
(SCIENCE CITATION INDEX)

Editores:

Dr. Luis Barba Pingarrón (barba@unam.mx) - LABORATORIO DE PROSPECCIÓN ARQUEOLÓGICA, INSTITUTO DE INVESTIGACIONES ANTROPOLÓGICAS, UNAM.

Dr. Avto Gogichaishvili (avto@igeofisica.unam.mx) – SERVICIO ARQUEOMAGNETICO NACIONAL, INSTITUTO DE GEOFISICAS UNIDAD MICHOACAN, UNAM.

Dr. José Luis Ruvalcaba Sil (sil@fisica.unam.mx) – LABORATORIO NACIONAL DE CIENCIAS PARA LA INVESTIGACION Y CONSERVACIÓN DEL PATRIMONIO CULTURAL LANCIC, INSTITUTO DE FÍSICA, UNAM.

Due to the growing interest on multidisciplinary topics between the Exact Science and Archaeology and successful inaugural special volume, we invite new, original contributions dealing on physics, chemistry, geoscience, geology, pedology, geomorphology, and archaeometry applications to the archaeological heritage rescue in Latin America. We welcome methodological, experimental and theoretical contributions that elucidates the interactions between humans and environment as well as the origin and development of materials used since prehistory time.

We intend to publish original long research papers, called “artículos”, and short notes, called “notas técnicas”, book reviews, and general monographic reviews.

The manuscript should be elaborated according editorial policy of the journal:

<http://boletinsgm.igeolcu.unam.mx/bsgm/index.php/instrucciones-instruccions> and sent to one of the Editors before June 30th, 2025 (or at earliest convenience). The special volume will be published by the first semester of 2026. However, accepted papers will be available immediately online.